

Summit Timber Group Ltd : GDPR Policy

We take both the privacy and security of your data very seriously and from May 25th 2018 new data privacy laws come into effect.

The General Data Protection Regulations (or GDPR for short) is designed to give you more control over your personal data, how this is used and how companies look after it.

GDPR applies to every company in the European Union that uses or processes personal data.

We believe these changes are positive and help to better protect your personal data. We have updated our Privacy Policy to reflect these changes which also sets out how your information is held and what it is used for.

You can change your preferences at any time including a request to have your data removed, or opt into receiving information about our products and promotions by contacting us here at :
